YOUR JANUARY HOROSCOPE

2007! It's time to celebrate a naughty new year!

ARIES January Horoscopes 2007: It's time to celebrate a naughty new year!

ARIES: Rams sail smoothly into 2007, beginning with a kick-azz party to launch the year. The party continues, as all the right word tumble from your lips to entice others to tumble in your sheets. The 5th is a great get-lucky day, but the way you're "head"-ed, you could keep it "up" all month!

TAURUS I hope you're revved up and ready, the stars say your sex life is gonna sizzle this month. If you've never even been to an orgy, let alone as the guest of honor, let's just say you're in for a wild ride! The 15th through the 20th are your days, be sure to share your toys.

GEMINI Gemini's are in for a month that's more about sexual potential than immediate gratification. January is a good time to take stock of what you want, in the bedroom and out. You'll still have some sexy flirtations going on, especially on the 12th and 13th. It's fine to take your time though; they'll be all the more hungry for your main dish after you make them wait for service!

CANCER Did that New Year's celebration fall short of your sexpeactions? No matter, this is your month to get out and shake that cute boo-tay! The 15th is an especially great day to strut your stuff, and they'll be lining up to watch you do it and beg for more.

LEO Oh my, Leo! The stars have picked a winner this month and sexually speaking, it's you. Most people need an excuse to get out this chilly month; you'll need one to stay in alone! Since you're practically irresistible, find some freaky people and live out those long-unfulfilled fantasies.

VIRGO January brings some new insights into your sex life. Use your revelations to start a bedroom revolution. Make some snow angels naked, whatever it takes! You'll spend the 8th and the 9th breaking out of the routine, and by the 16th, sparks will fly!

LIBRA Spend a little time early this month pondering the preferences of that piece you're currently pursuing. If you do a good job, you'll be sharing the sheets by the 11th. If you do a great job, orgasmic rhapsodies will continue into next month. Communication now will payoff in lots of playtime, so start talking!

SCORPIO Feeling a bit warm? Scorpios start the New Year out with scores of admirers hot on their trail! It's tempting to play the field, or lay the field if you'd rather, but you may want to narrow it a bit first. I'm not telling you to settle down, just pick lovers who really get your blood pumping. The 12th and 13th are your marathon sex days and you'll rise quite easily to the occasion!

SAGITTARIUS The New Year finds you exercising your most cunning linguistics! If you can talk the talk, you can skip directly to "home run" this month. Your finest flirting days are happening from the 10th on and like I said, you're sure to score! My best advice is to savor the sweetness of the hunt as well as the thrill of the kill.

CAPRICORN Happy Nude Rear, or something like that, my happy, horny goats. January kicks your year off right, right from the start. The 1st through the 5th find you ready to rock, hard, and in the right company to do it! The rest of the month also lends itself to sensual exploration, so be sure to investigate every last curve.

AQUARIUS FOXY BIRTHDAY TO YOU! The first days of the year will be slow from a sensual standpoint, but you'll start to feel the heat by midmonth. Practice patience early and your reward will spread out naked before you by the 13th! The rest of your month will flesh out in fine form after that.

PISCES Make a New Year's resolution for sexual satisfaction and stick to it from (literally) day one! If your smoothest moves haven't done you any good lately, toss those tired pick-up lines and try a new approach. A quick stop at an adult novelty shop on the 16th will put you in the right frame of mind for some bedroom explorations on the 22nd. Remember to play nice!
